

Long ago

Read

Read the story about Martin Luther King Jr.

Martin Luther King Jr.

Martin Luther King Jr. was a leader in the Civil Rights Movement in the 1950s and 1960s. At this time in history, people were segregated by the color of their skin.

Martin Luther King Jr. led many non-violent protests to end segregation. He won the Nobel Peace Prize on October 14, 1964, for standing up against segregation. He was arrested many times for his beliefs; however, he did not give up on them. He gave his famous "I Have A Dream" speech in 1963.

After you read

Answer the question about Martin Luther King Jr.

1. What was Martin Luther King Jr a leader for?

2. How long was he a leader for?

3. What does segregation mean?

4. Martin Luther King Jr led what kind of protests?

5. Why did he win the Nobel Peace Prize?

6. What is the name of Martin Luther King Jr's famous speech?
